Marta Lewicka, The University of Chicago.

"Well-Posedness of Hyperbolic Systems of Conservation Laws with Large Data"

ABSTRACT:
The system of conservation laws in one space dimension is the first order PDE: \( u_t + f(u)_x = 0 \). Several fundamental laws of physics take form of a conservation equation. In this talk, we will present an overview of the related well-posedness theory, particularly focusing on the speaker’s work about the stability of large waves.